Deciding what needs to be assessed

Do not be put off by the list below, it does not mean that long and detailed assessments are required every time you are engaged in one of the activities. However, it does mean that you should always consider the equalities implications of your proposals.

1. No barriers identified, therefore activity will proceed.	✓	The policy provides a transparent framework that SBC will follow to ensure decisions on domestic abuse and procedures that follow are carried out in line with the policy.
2. Stop at some point because the data shows bias towards one or more groups
3. Adapt or change the event in a way which you think will eliminate the bias
4. Barriers and impact have been identified, however having considered all available options carefully, there appear to be no other proportionate ways to achieve the aim of the policy or practice (e.g. in extreme cases or where positive action is taken). Therefore, proceed with caution with this knowing that it may favour some people less than others, providing justification for this decision.
