

ISSUE 30 · OCTOBER 2022

PINCH OF SALT

A brief update from Children's Speech & Language Therapy Services in Swindon

TRAINING

DON'T FORGET TO BOOK ON TO A VARIETY OF COURSES VIA SWINDON HUB

Upcoming Dates

Supporting communication for children with Downs Syndrome in Foundation Stage /Year 1

1st November

English as an Additional Language and Speech Therapy

16th November

Screening and referring to Speech and Language Therapy

17th November

Signalong Foundation Course

4th January

Supporting Early Communication Skills in the Early Years

10th January

Staffing News

We welcome 3 new
Speech and Language
Support Practitioners

Michelle Lester
Justyna Agacka
Hannah Webb

WEBSITE

If you need to refer or get resources check out our website

READING TOGETHER

LIGHT UP YOUR CHILD'S BRAIN

“[Researchers] found that children who frequently read books with their parents and have conversations about the book show more activity in the brain when they listen to stories. The brain activity was noticed in areas related to language and reading [2,3]. Researchers have also noticed that children with lots of enjoyable reading experiences at home have more organized nerve connections in the brain, which helps signals travel within and between areas of the brain” Hanen

Remember Read and Talk...

Click here for more tips on reading together

LET'S TALK AUTUMN

WE'VE ATTACHED SOME GREAT IDEAS FOR SETTINGS, SCHOOLS AND PARENTS TO GET TALKING OVER HALF TERM

Congratulations!

THE BIRTH TO FIVE
CONFERENCE AWARDS

SPEECH AND LANGAUGE
RECIEVED:

TAMSIN CLARKE

RUNNER UP

'FOUNTAIN OF KNOWLEDGE
AWARD'

AND

SARAH TAYLOR

WINNER

'EFFICIENCY AWARD'.

Thank you to the Early Years Consultants for organising this event

